I have lived and farmed in the Woodanilling Shire for most of my life. I started my education at Woodanilling Primary School and graduated with a BSc (Agric) at the University of WA. I have a broad agricultural background across WA as a farmer and an agricultural contractor and I have many years experience representing our community and region on various bodies including Local Government, Agricultural Protection Board, Blackwood Basin Group, Agricultural Freight Group, Towed Agricultural Implements Working Group, Wagin-Woodanilling Landcare, Chief Bushfire Control Officer etc.

My wife, Marg, and I have 4 daughters, 2 of them farming in Woodanilling with their husbands and children.

I see a good future for Woodanilling, with great opportunities arising from with the forthcoming industrial development in the region, sound financial management and a passionate community.

I believe I can offer the skills, experience and have the passion to benefit our community.

I seek your support.
